Park Road connects Rottingdean High Street with the A259 Marine Drive and is primarily a residential area, featuring a community centre hall opposite. The A259 coast road provides convenient access to Brighton, approximately 4 miles to the west, and Eastbourne to the east.

'The Chapel' is situated less than 20 meters from the main High Street and is within easy walking distance of Rottingdean seafront and various independent shops. The area also hosts several well-known tenants, including estate agents Fox & Sons and Mishon Mackay, as well as nationally recognized grocery stores Budgens and Tesco Express, with a large car park facing the coast road.

The premises sits adjacent to the former St Aubyns preparatory school, now transformed into Rottingdean Villages, an exciting new development of 1, 2, 3, and 4-bedroom homes opening in 2024.
